-Write a full-page review of War of the Worlds. Explain the strong points and weak points of the novel. What appealed to you about it, and what did not? Refer to scenes and events from the novel in the course of your review. You do not need to include quotes from the novel.

-Choose a current topic or event (elections, a social issue, local politics, world politics, current events, etc.). Find two news articles on the topic, preferably with opposing viewpoints. Summarize each article in one paragraph each. Then, write a paragraph comparing and contrasting the two articles. Explain which article stated its points the strongest and why.
