

Hello Parents and Students,

My name is Christopher Trompas, and I will be teaching 9th and 10th grade English at the Learning Choice Academy this year. I am very excited to be a part of TLC's teaching-team, and I am also very excited to be a part of your family teaching-team. This year, we will be reading interesting fiction and nonfiction pieces and completing various writing assignments to increase our abilities in reading, writing, listening, speaking, critical analysis, and use of vocabulary. Please see my attached syllabus for a more complete description of the course.

Since I am new to the TLC family, I would like to tell you a bit about myself. I grew up in San Diego and San Clemente, and developed my two primary passions for literature and music while I was in high school. I earned my Bachelor's degree in literature at the University of California, Santa Cruz. While the Northern Californian forests are beautiful indeed, I missed Southern California and moved back to complete my teaching credential at the University of San Diego. I completed my student teaching assignments at Mueller Charter School in Chula Vista and at High Tech High International in Point Loma. I am thrilled to now have a classroom of my own in an innovative learning environment.

I recognize the unique and significant role of parents in their student's education at TLC, and thus I would like to always keep an open line of communication with parents and students. I have a website at mrchrisattlc.weebly.com which will be regularly updated with assignments and resources. You may also email me anytime at ctrompas@learningchoice.org. I am looking forward to our year together!

Sincerely,

Christopher Trompas
