20. Consider the following:

"It was not their custom to fight for our gods...Let us not presume to do so now. If a man kills a sacred python in the secrecy of his hut, the matter lies between him and god. We did not see it. If we put ourselves between the god and his victim, we receive the blows intended for the offender. When a man blasphemes, what do we do? Do we go and stoop his mouth? No. We put our fingers into our ears to stop us from hearing. This is a wise action."

How might this philosophy be detrimental to the clan?

21. Who became the strongest adherents to the new faith? Why?
