Things Fall Apart: In-Class Writing: Guides

In the Odinani religion of the Ibo people, everyone is assigned a Chi, or personal god, at birth. Among its other purposes, this chi offers guidance on an individual's path in life. Do you have anything that fulfills this function in your life?

Write a 3 - 4 paragraph piece that responds to the following questions: -What guides you in your life? -How and why did it start? -What are some specific instances when you were guided by it? -How does it influence your worldview?
