NAME:
DATE:
	The Ray Bradbury Theater: "The Veldt"
Questions to accompany your viewing:
1.	The mother, Lydia, says to her husband, "The nursery, it's"
2.	What is in the nursery room?
3.	What does Lydia want to do to the nursery room and to the rest of the house?
4.	What happens when George tries to change the scene in the nursery?
5.	How do the children refer to their parents?
6.	What is the scene in the nursery when the children enter?
7.	What does George find on the ground of the nursery?
8.	What does the psychiatrist, David, advise the parents to do with their children?
9.	What does George do to the house?
10.	What happens to the parents?

Questions to answer after watching the video:
	What is Bradbury warning against in "The Veldt"? Do you think we should heed his warning?
2. \	Why are the children so emotionally cold toward their parents?
3. \	Who, in your opinion, is to blame for the children's behavior?

4. How do you think Bradbury would feel about the technology of today?