N.	١.٨	N /	т.
IN	А	IVI

The Black Hole

Go to the following website address and watch the short film, "The Black Hole":

http://youtu.be/P5 Msrdg3Hk

If you don't have internet access at home, you can use a computer at the public library, at a friends house, or you can watch the video on a smartphone.

Then, answer the following questions:

1. Did you like this short film? Why or why not?

2. The Mood is the atmosphere or feeling that a writer or filmmaker seeks to evoke from the audience. In a film, the mood may be created by sets and sound as well as words and gestures. The mood of a piece is typically described with an adjective. For example, the moods evoked by the more popular short stories of Edgar Allen Poe tend to be gloomy, horrific, and desperate. How would you describe the mood of "The Black Hole"? How did the filmmakers create this mood?

FLIP ME OVER! →

3. A startling amount of character change occurs in the 2 1/2 minutes of this short film. Describe this character change.

4.	This short film seems to tell a sort of cautionary tale that warns against a certain kind of behavior. What kind of behavior do you think this film warns against?
5.	What happens after the screen goes black? Write your own ending to the short film below. Make it at least five sentences.